

Bradley W. Bryan

PO Box 15981, Sarasota FL 34277 • (941) 539-3315 • brad@bradbryan.com
Online portfolio available at www.bradbryan.com

Skills

- Video design, production, and editing; music composition and sound editing; DVD, CD-ROM authoring; compression for web
- Design skills for print/web marketing
- Big-picture thinker with detail-oriented execution; work well individually and as part of a team
- Flexible, able to multitask, prioritize, and quickly adapt to changing demands
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills. Strong ability in interviewing, writing, and editing
- Proficient in: Sony Vegas, Acid, Sound Forge; Adobe Premiere, Photoshop, InDesign, Illustrator, Acrobat; Microsoft Office
- Languages: Spanish and French

BRAD!BRYAN Multimedia video productions Director/Writer/Camera/Editor, unless otherwise noted:

Commercial Projects

Promo videos, TV spots, editing & more. Clients include

- Sarasota County Health Department
- Venice Regional Medical Center
- Planned Parenthood of Southwest & Central Florida
- Manatee County Health Department
- Jewish Family & Children's Service
- Sarasota Chamber of Commerce
- Imely Photography (weddings) – camera & editing
- Girl Scouts of Gulfcoast Florida – camera & editing

Non-commercial short & feature-length films including

- "The Tobacco Club" – camera/editor/music
- Miami Dish Video Bites (cooking webisodes)
- "How to Speak Hoosier" (Mock instructional video, 4 episodes)
- Music videos
- Documentaries
- Comedic & experimental shorts

+ View samples at www.bradbryan.com

Film/National TV Experience

- PA: Food Network's "Dear Food Network" (Sarasota, FL). Cooking show starring Alton Brown.
- PA: DIY Network's "Rock Solid" (Sarasota, FL). Home improvement reality TV show.
- Art Department Coordinator: "No Better Place To Die" (Normandy, France). WWII drama directed by Dale Dye.
- Art Department Coordinator: "Like Dandelion Dust" (Jacksonville, Florida). Family drama starring Mira Sorvino.
- Grip: "Coyote Funeral" (Houston & San Antonio, Texas, 2005). Modern western, 35mm.
- PA: "Life in Minor" (Sarasota, Florida, 2005). Experimental short drama, HDV.

Work History

- Multimedia Specialist, Bradley Bryan Multimedia Services, (Sarasota, Florida, 2005 - present).

Created videos (from concept to edited final product), composed music, designed and maintained websites and logos. Performed video editing services, created DVDs (for weddings, etc). Performed graphic design and layout for print.

- Managerial Consultant, Cahoots Coffee Café, (Angola, Indiana, 2005).

Led initiative to reorganize and improve operation of this not-for-profit organization. Designed and implemented improvements to product line and pricing, operational organization, and events. Supervised staff of eight, coordinated interns, liaised with community volunteers. Hired new staff, including full-time manager.

- Admissions Officer, Office of Admissions, New College of Florida (Sarasota, Florida, 2000-2004)

Managed recruitment territory (Miami, Washington DC, and New York areas) in fast-paced admissions office of highly selective liberal arts college. Increased enrollment overall and minority enrollees by 10+%. Developed and led diversity initiatives and community outreach programs. Interviewed, evaluated applicants. Traveled, represented College, gave public presentations. Created/updated content for website, greatly improving design and navigation. Hired/trained/managed intern staff of 10, streamlined program. Implemented communication campaigns. Managed sophisticated database of prospective students.

Education

- New College of Florida, the honors college of Florida's university system. Bachelor of Arts, 2000.

Studied liberal arts with a concentration in biology through a progressive approach of seminar-style classes, self-designed tutorials, independent projects, and a rigorous 80-page senior thesis of original research.

- The Indiana Academy for Science, Mathematics, & Humanities. Academic Honors Diploma, 1995.